Turn Row-

HOLIDAY 2007

As we complete our first full year, everyone at Turnrow Book Co. would like to thank you for helping make this so much fun. Your willingness to stray from the beaten path and find us way out here in the Mississippi Delta means a lot, and we hope we can repay you in some small measure by enhancing your shopping experience and steering you toward the right books. The titles selected in this catalog represent our favorites of the year, as well as those our customers have shown us.

We firmly believe there is a book out there for just about everyone, and we enjoy matching them up. You can use this catalog to generate a shopping list before you drop by the store. We'll help you gather your selections quickly, then invite you to take a break from the rush and have a cup of coffee and a muffin upstairs in our refurbished café while we wrap your gifts. If you can't make it to town, drop us an email (turnrow@turnrowbooks.com) or give us a call (888-453-5995) and we'll send your order straight to you or to whomever you wish, bundled in our Delta packaging.

Happy holidays, and thanks again for a great year....

MUST SEE MISSISSIPPI

photos by Mary Rose Carter

A must-have for any Mississippi home library, this handsome collection by Greenwood favorites is as fine a record of our state's history as you'll find in print. Signed copies available. University Press of Mississippi, hd. 40.00.

DELTA DOG

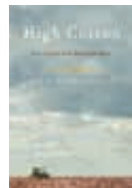

Maude Schuyler Clay's "Dog in the Fog" has become an icon of the modern Mississippi Delta. We have two posters, a commemorative edition from the Alluvian Hotel and a collage-style poster featuring several of Clay's dog photos for the Delta Blues Museum, both for $25. If you'd prefer to wear the Dog on your person, we have some nice Delta Dog T-shirts, brown or pink short sleeves or a white spaghetti-strap tank top, each for $20. And there's always Clay's wonderful, haunting collection of black-and-white Delta photos, Delta Land (University Press of Mississippi, hd. 35.00), a perennial favorite. Signed copies available.

SOMEBODY IS GOING TO DIE IF LILLY BETH DOESN'T CATCH THAT BOUQUET
Gayden Metcalfe and Charlotte Hays

For Southern ladies or anyone with a funny bone, Metcalfe and Hays are this year's favorites. While decorum lent some restraint to their hilarious observations of Delta funeral custom in the sensational Being Dead is No Excuse (19.95), these clever ladies don't hold back in their outrageous tour through Delta wedding traditions. Signed copies available. Hyperion, hd. 19.95.

HIGH COTTON:

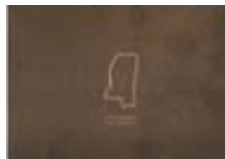

Four Seasons in the Mississippi Delta

Gerard Helferich

This is a book like no other about the Delta, a well-written account of an entire planting season with a Tchula, Mississippi, cotton farmer whose arduous journey from till to mill makes for good reading. For anyone who has ever ridden past miles of cotton fields and wondered how it all came together, you'll never look at cotton the same. Signed copies available. Counterpoint, hd. 25.00.

for those who love Mississippi . . .

MISSISSIPPI

Ken Murphy

Iconic settings from every corner of Mississippi, captured in their most favorable light by a master photographer. This is one of the year's most cherished keepsakes. Any page could be cut from the book and framed. Six new book covers available, plus we have Murphy's pre-Katrina My South Coast Home. Signed copies are available. Both hd. 75.00 each.

THE MISSISSIPPI STORY

Patti Carr Black

Works from the permanent collection of the Mississippi Museum of Art provide a lovely overview of the state's visual arts. Our landscape, culture and people are represented in diverse styles by the best and most popular artists of Mississippi. Mississippi Museum of Art, hd. 29.95.

MOSTLY MISSISSIPPI

Miriam Weems

Vibrant paintings capture a variety of Mississippi landscapes, traditions and personalities in this first collection by a favorite Mississippi artist. Signed copies available. Quail Ridge Press, hd. 39.95.

HISTORIC CHURCHES OF MISSISSIPPI

Sherry Pace

A lovely, coffee table-sized book that will appeal to collectors of Mississippi history, architecture enthusiasts, and anyone who attends the 133 historic churches throughout the state that are featured here. Signed copies available. University Press of Mississippi, hd. 40.00.

LOOKING AROUND MISSISSIPPI

SOME MORE

Walt Grayson

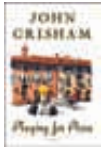

New photos and stories from all corners of the state by the popular host of Mississippi Roads. Request a signed copy. Donning, hd. 46.95.

MISSISSIPPI: A NATURAL YEAR 2008

Robin Whitfield

Painter Robin Whitfield has created this beautiful wall calendar, featuring her wildlife paintings and naturalist notes for each day of the year. 16.00.

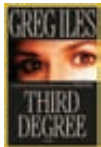

for those who love a good story . . .

PLAYING FOR PIZZA

John Grisham

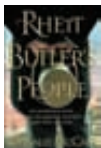

A signed edition by John Grisham never fails to impress a book lover. His delightful new novel follows a washed-up NFL quarterback who moves to Italy to play American football. Also great for sports fans and Italophiles. Signed copies available. Doubleday, hd. 21.95.

THIRD DEGREE

Greg Iles

Suspense fans love Greg Iles, whose latest psychological thriller charts a day in the life of a family on the brink of imploding from secrets and lies. This one contains the same page-turning pace that Iles fans crave. Signed copies available. Scribner, hd. 25.95.

RHETT BUTLER'S PEOPLE

Donald McCaig

Ace historical writer Donald McCaig, with the endorsement of the Margaret Mitchell estate, has told Rhet Butler's story in this fun, fast-paced epic that does this great character jus-ice. It may ruffle the feathers of Gone With the Wind purists, but anyone who loves large-canvas historical fiction like Lonesome Dove will be hooked. Signed copies available. St. Martin's, hd. 27.95.

RUN

Ann Patchett

For those who know the boost great fiction can give, here is the story of two families, separated by a few blocks in Boston but economically a world apart, and the tragic accident that forces them to reevaluate the notions of family. Morrow, hd. 25.95.

BRIDGE OF SIGHS

Richard Russo

This is the perfect hunker-down and cozy-up novel for fans of great American novels. There are few better writers who capture the nuances of small town life. Signed copies available. Knopf, hd. 26.95.

for Mother, Daughter, Wife, Sister, Grandmother . . .

KATRINA: MISSISSIPPI WOMEN REMEMBER

Photos by Melody Golding

First-hand accounts of Katrina from women on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, interspersed with evocative photographs from Melody Golding, form a new and unique portrait of strength and resilience in the face of tragedy. An inspiring gift for those in need of uplift. Signing with Golding and select contributors on Dec. 8. University Press of Mississippi, hd. 32.00.

DECEPTIVELY DELICIOUS

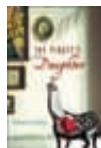

Jessica Seinfeld

For mothers with young children, the days of dinner table fighting is over. By pureeing and hiding nutritious foods into meals that kids love, parents can help purge poor nutrition and processed food from their family's diet. A sensation among discriminating moms.

THE PIRATE'S DAUGHTER

Margaret Cezair-Thompson

Light and swift as a sea breeze, this superb novel tells the story of an unconventional Jamaican family and the effects that their neighbor, matinee idol Errol Flynn, makes on the lives of two generations of women. Anyone in need of an escape will bask in the tropical setting, and the wonderful characters will last like good friends. A national favorite among booksellers. Signing Dec. 7. Unbridled Books, hd. 24.95.

SO ITALIAN

Paul Canonici

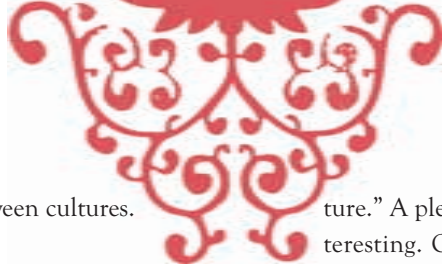

For the kitchen traveler, this book of Italian art, recipes and travel notes is a lovely package, compiled by the author of Delta Italians. While the food is wonderful, what really makes this book a treat to browse are the colorful sketches and watercolors that capture the spirit of Italy. Signed copies available. Hd. 45.00.

FROM MANHATTAN TO MISSISSIPPI

Daisy Karam-Read

A Yankee confesses how she fell in love with Mississippi after moving from Manhattan to Ocean Springs. Stereotypes are turned on their ear in this fun, breezy book for anyone who's found themselves caught between cultures.

Quail Ridge Press, hd. 12.00.

HOME TO HOLLY SPRINGS

Jan Karon

Karon's Mitford books were among the most popular in recent years, and old fans and newcomers alike can begin this new series, set in Holly Springs, Mississippi. A spiritual tale of home and forgiveness. Viking, hd. 26.95.

SOUTHERN LADY GRACIOUS TABLES

Phyllis Hoffman

For the lady who likes to entertain, the publisher of Southern Lady magazine has put together an attractive collection of table settings and recipes for various occasions. Collins, hd. 39.95.

THE DARING BOOK FOR GIRLS

Andrea J. Buchanan & Miriam Peskowitz

"For every girl with an independent spirit and a nose for trouble, here is the no-boys-allowed guide to adventure." A plethora of information, from the practical to the highly interesting. Girls young and old will learn something new on every page. Collins, hd. 24.95.

LIVING IN THE GARDEN HOME

P. Allen Smith

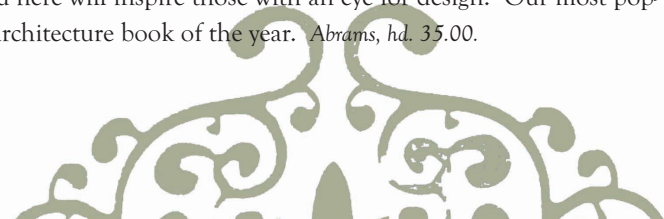

Gardening enthusiasts, or anyone who simply needs some inspiration to spruce up their living space, would do well to consult this master gardener, who demonstrates how to create an ever-changing garden through year-round projects. Clarkson Potter, hd. 32.50.

CREOLE HOUSES

Photos by Steve Gross & Sue Daley, text by John Lawrence

Take a look through this book and be whisked away to another time. Elegant and rustic, the Creole style celebrated here will inspire those with an eye for design. Our most popular architecture book of the year. Abrams, hd. 35.00.

THE ART OF SIMPLE FOOD

Alice Waters

For anyone who eats, here is one of the best gifts we have to offer this season — a rare signed copy (while supplies last) of an instant classic, a cookbook so wise and simple that it may change the way you approach cooking. It's so basic as to be revolutionary in this age of processed meals, but even old hats in the kitchen will be inspired by the message of this food guru.

Limited signed copies available. Clarkson Potter, hd. 35.00.

SOUTHERN SEASONS

Robert St. John & Wyatt Waters

For all Southern tastes, one of Mississippi's best chefs and one of its best artists reteam after their popular Southern Palate (hd. 34.95) for a celebration of the senses and seasons. Functional enough for the kitchen, yet beautiful enough for the coffee table. You can't go wrong here. Signed copies available. Different Drummer, hd. 34.95.

WHERE FLAVOR WAS BORN

Andreas Viestad

For the daring chef, this is perhaps the loveliest, most exotic cookbook we've seen all year. Viestad's tour through the Indian Ocean Spice Trail is a celebration of bold flavors, from Africa to India to Thailand. Signed copies available. Chronicle, hd. 40.00.

CHEZ JACQUES

Jacques Pépin

For the serious gourmand, we offer this gorgeous memoir through recipes, signed by the master. Here are Pépin's 100 favorites, the dishes he makes at home and that he has made famous throughout the world, revealed in a conversational style as if the chef were leaning over your shoulder in the kitchen. A perfect summation of the man's life and work. Signed copies available. Abrams, hd. 45.00.

SOUTHERN CAKES

Nancie McDermott

For anyone who loves dessert but is scared to give up their box of mix, here's an approachable collection of scratch-baked classics from timeless Southern tables. Signed copies available. Chronicle, pb. 19.95.

SIMPLY SALADS

Jennifer Chandler

A smart guide to greens for the fast-paced, health-conscious eater on your list. One of our most popular cookbooks of the year. Signed copies available. Rutledge, hd. 24.99.

A LOVE AFFAIR WITH SOUTHERN COOKING

Jean Anderson

For the experienced or simply curious Southern cook, this is a collection of staples from a respected kitchen veteran. Morrow, hd. 32.50.

For the gift that keeps giving throughout the year and even years beyond, consider a year-long gift subscription to A CHEF'S LIBRARY, Turnrow's new culinary book club. Both aspiring cooks and seasoned pros will benefit from a rich, diverse and valuable library of food books.

Each month we'll select a top new cookbook or exceptional work of food writing and send members a signed first edition. There is no membership fee, only the cover price of the book (typically $25-$45), charged monthly, and a $6 shipping charge.

We offer two subscriptions:

- A Chef's Premium Library, featuring 12 titles a year (both cookbooks and food writing) and a free bonus book at the end of the year.
- The Cookbook Library, featuring our 6-8 cookbook picks for the year.

Some of this year's selections included the James Beard Award-winning Lee Bros. Southern Cookbook, Cat Cora's Cooking from the Hip, and Alice Waters' The Art of Simple Food.

GRIDIRON GOLD

By the Frascognas

Anyone who coached or played high school football (or has sat in the stands week after week) will appreciate this definitive history of the game in Mississippi. The state has been cited as producing the best athletes in the country, and this is a unique, loving ode to the coaches who make it happen each year. Signed copies available. Mississippi Sports Council, hd. 31.95.

THE EGG BOWL

William G. Barner

The Mississippi football fanatic will relish this in-depth account of the annual football match-up between Ole Miss and Mississippi State, a battle waged since 1901. A game-by-game history with loads of stats, scoring drives, players, coaches and more. Signed copies available. University Press of Mississippi, hd. 30.00.

THE DANGEROUS BOOK FOR BOYS

Conn & Hal Iggulden

For the curious boy, or those who miss being one, here are ways to wile away endless hours without a computer or television. An instructional on making things (tree houses, bow and arrow, go-cart), doing things (tying knots, playing chess, coin tricks), and knowing things (first aid, navigation, history) – this is a treasury both fun and practical. Collins, hd. 24.95.

SHILOH AND CORINTH: Sentinels of Stone

Timothy T. Isbell

Mississippi Civil War buffs will find this a handsome and respectful homage to the battlefield at Shiloh and the many sites of Corinth. Lively stories of the historic events, along with photos and descriptions of the present-day locales, are the next best thing to a visit in person. University Press of Mississippi, hd. 40.00.

MEAT MARKET

Bruce Feldman

College football fans, especially Rebels, will find much to admire in this serious look at college recruiting, as viewed through Coach Orgeron's program at Ole Miss. The complex inner workings of the staff and the amazing personal stories of the players make this a sure-bet. Signed copies available. ESPN Books, hd. 24.95.

THE YOUNG MAN AND THE SEA

Dave Pasternack

For the man who loves fish, whether catching or cooking, this is a scrumptious tour of seafood from pole to pan. Dave knows how to catch, handle, and prepare fish like no other, and his stories are told with great flair by Ed Levine.

Signed copies available. Artisan, hd. 35.00.

THE WAR: An Intimate History, 1941-1945

Geoffrey C. Ward & Ken Burns

This handsome tome is the perfect keepsake for history collectors. While it's the companion to Burns' acclaimed documentary series, this book stands on its own as an excellent one-volume history of World War II, complete with hundreds of rare photographs. Knopf, hd. 50.00.

AMERICAN CREATION

Joseph J. Ellis

For readers of history and politics, Joseph J. Ellis is among the most beloved contemporary historians. He reviews the most politically creative era in our country, the late eighteenth century, and reveals how its greatest successes and failures created the nation we have today. Knopf, hd. 26.95.

BOONE

Robert Morgan

A fine novelist writes the biography of American folk hero Daniel Boone, dispelling myths and revealing things you never knew. A riveting history for the old soul. Algonquin, hd. 29.95.

IF YOU DIDN'T BRING JERKY, WHAT DID I JUST EAT?

Bill Heavey

Heavey has been called the Lewis Grizzard of the great outdoors, and some of his most hilarious columns on hunting and fishing for Field & Stream magazine are collected here for the first time. Atlantic Monthly, hd. 23.00.

for good listeners . . .

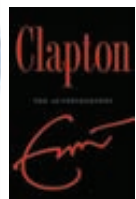

RAISING SAND

Robert Plant and Alison Krauss

For long-time music lovers, here is an unexpected musical pairing that makes for some of the year's best music. Krauss' country folk meets Plant's ethereal rock for a truly unique sound and songs you'll keep in your head all day.

Rounder, CD 18.98.

CLAPTON: THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Eric Clapton

The Clapton fan will enjoy reading about the guitar idol's life in his own words. For $50, we'll throw in the two-disc Complete Clapton CD, featuring four decades of favorite songs. Book: Broadway, hd. 26.00; CD, Reprise, 2 CDs 25.98. Package, 50.00.

POETRY SPEAKS: EXPANDED EDITION

Poetry lovers will flip over this book & CD collection, which features 47 poets – from Tennyson, Eliot and Joyce to Frost, Ginsberg and Kerouac. The book lends biographical and critical material while the CD contains the poets reading their own work. Sourcebooks, hd. w/ 3 CDs, 49.95.

PUTUMAYO WORLD MUSIC

For music fans of eclectic tastes, try a few of these great CDs, which combine some of the most interesting music being made around the world. We have discs featuring the sounds of Italy, Latin America,

Africa and more, though some of our domestic favorites include a swinging holiday collection, New Orleans Christmas, and the recent New Orleans Brass. The Mississippi Blues CD is a great sampler, featuring classic and newer music by the best hands in history. CDs are $15 each.

COUNTRY GHETTO

JJ Grey & Mofro

For Southern music fans, this was one of our favorites of the past year, a Florida band who is to 1960s/'70s Southern funk and soul what the North Mississippi All-Stars are to hill country blues. Alligator, CD 16.98.

MERLE'S DOOR

Ted Kerasote

For dog lovers, this is the year's most acclaimed book on man's best friend. Merle's character bounds off the page, and the instinctual techniques of his owner reveal fascinating new ideas about animal-human interaction.

Signed copies available. Harcourt, hd. 25.95.

QUIET STRENGTH

Tony Dungy

For the gift of good advice, try this memoir by the Indianapolis Colts' head coach. His personal faith, high principles and battles with adversity make him an inspiring role model. A customer favorite. Tyndale, hd. 26.99.

EAT, PRAY, LOVE

Elizabeth Gilbert

Live vicariously through a gifted writer as she makes her way through three countries on a journey of self-discovery. Readers love the writer's passion and the clarity of her profound discoveries. Penguin, hd. 24.95, pb. 15.00.

FROM THE HEART

Robin Roberts

There is proven inspiration in the popular new book by a Mississippi native, college basketball star and Good Morning America co-host. Roberts' down-to-earth style and seven rules for meaningful success will provide easy, beneficial reading for all ages. Hyperion, hd. 19.95.

HERE IF YOU NEED ME

Kate Braestrup

If you like spiritual memoirs with muscle, here is a strong debut about a woman who loses her husband and takes up his dream to become a minister. For fans of Anne Lamott and hard-earned faith. Little, Brown, hd. 23.95.

LEATHER JOURNALS

Choose one of our handcrafted leather journals from Under the Mango Tree for that one-of-a-kind gift. A feast for the senses with its genuine leather smell and its rough, handmade pages. Each variety comes in small or large size, whether it be plain leather (sm. 20.00, lg. 30.00), tooled leather (sm. 25.00, lg. 35.00), or Celtic leather designs (sm. 35.00, lg. 45.00).

for the little ones . . .

HAVE A BEARY CHRISTMAS . . .

Kids love Bear and his forest friends from the Karma Wilson and Jane Chapman books, the newest of which is Bear Feels Sick (McElderry, hd. 16.99). These books are playful and fun to read aloud, as is the new Very Hairy Bear (Harcourt, hd. 16.00) by Alice Schertle and Matt Phelan, which follows a bear through the seasons. In David Horvath's Bossy Bear (Hyperion, hd. 12.99), a demanding blue cub learns the virtue of sharing. The bear in Greg Foley's Thank You Bear (Viking, hd. 15.99) is already quite generous and must forge past all the naysayers who would keep him from bestowing an humble gift on his friend Mouse. Simple, adorable and one of our favorites of the year.

FOR LITTLE GIRLS . . .

Perhaps the most popular series for little girls is Fancy Nancy by Jane O'Connor and Robin Preiss Glasser. If your precocious little princess doesn't already have the original or Fancy Nancy and the Posh Puppy (both HarperCollins, hd. 16.99), try the Fancy Nancy Glamorous Gift, which comes with the first book, a tiara and a feather boa (24.99). Tide them over with Fancy Nancy Loves! Loves! Loves! (pb. 6.99), a reusable sticker book, until the new storybook arrives in time for Valentine's Day.

Also back for the holidays is everyone's favorite precocious pig in Olivia Helps with Christmas (Atheneum, hd. 18.99).

. . . AND LITTLE BOYS

Rough and tumble boys will admire Bad Dog, Marley! (HarperCollins, hd. 16.99) by John Grogan, based on his beloved memoir of a fun-loving, misbehaving dog. Randall de Sève's and Loren Long's Toy Boat (Philomel, hd. 16.99) is a great tale about a lost toy's adventures.

MUSIC TO THEIR EARS . . .

Parents, don't be afraid to bring kids' music into the house. We have several collections you won't mind hearing over and over again. In the Baby Loves Jazz series, characters like Charlie Bird, Duck Ellington and Ella Elephant teach kids about music, colors, counting and more through cool jazz. There are several oversized board books with CDs in this series, each 7.99.

Author Sandra Boynton is a favorite of kids and adults. Her new book of songs, Blue Moo (Workman, hd. w/CD 16.95), features some of her good-natured, humorous tunes as performed by such heavy hitters as B.B. King, Davy Jones, Brian Wilson and more.

And finally, we love Putumayo's New Orleans Playground (15.00), a unique collection of songs for kids by Crescent City luminaries like Fats Domino and Dr. John.

THE MOST POP-ULAR . . .

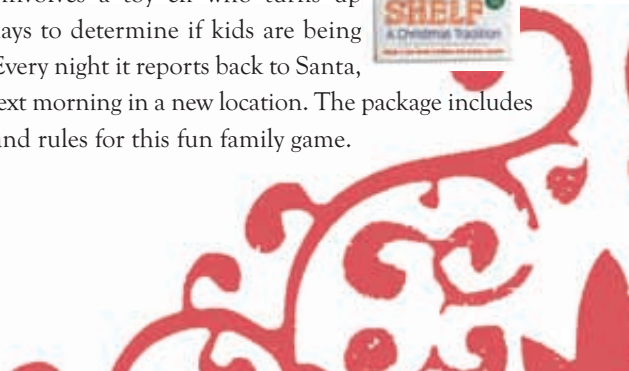

Pop-Up books get bigger and more impressive each year, and some of this season's best reflect an interest among bigger kids. Consider Star Wars: A Pop-Up Guide to the Galaxy (Scholastic, 32.99) by Matthew Reinhart, featuring characters that spring to three-dimensional life. Robert Sabuda has given similar treatment to The Chronicles of Narnia Pop-Up (HarperCollins, 29.99), and Sam Ita has retold Melville's Moby-Dick (Sterling, 24.95) through pop ups. Speaking of the high seas, you won't believe the two-and-a-half foot ship that pops out of Martin Jenkins' and Brian Sanders's Titanic (Candlewick, 29.99). For land lubbers, a whole town springs up from Anton Radevsky's Wild West Pop-Up Book (Sterling, 24.95). These books aren't just for show but are packed with great stories and history.

ELF ON THE SHELF . . .

What a sensation! Parents are coming in droves to buy Elf on the Shelf (hd. 29.95), a new Christmas tradition which involves a toy elf who turns up around the holidays to determine if kids are being naughty or nice. Every night it reports back to Santa, reappearing the next morning in a new location. The package includes a story book, elf and rules for this fun family game.

Turnrow toyland . . .

BABY TOYS . . .

For new babies, we carry Melissa & Doug's line of First Play toys, which include soft toys stackable soft toys and colorful wooden toys for grasping and pulling. These toys are smooth-sanded and colored with non-toxic dyes.

CLASSIC TOYS . . .

Melissa & Doug specialize in the classics, those great toys that never go out of style and don't require batteries – wooden alphabet blocks, Pound-a-Peg, shape sorting cubes, pull-along zoo, and the good old Abacus, all reasonably priced up to $20. Safe and durable for years of toddler wear and tear. You also may see roaming around the bookstore one of several oversize plush toys, such as the five-foot tall giraffe (99.98), the jumbo brown teddy bear (69.98), or the rocking horse (79.98).

NOTE: As Christmas hastens, our stock fluctuates on these items. If we don't have the exact toy you seek, we can help you find something similar.

PUZZLES . . .

We have puzzles for all ages and abilities, from Mudpuppy's four-piece puzzle boxes (10.00), six-sided block puzzles (13.00) and 24-piece giant floor puzzles (17.99) to Melissa & Doug's giant knob puzzles for babies (19.99), wooden lap puzzles (4.98-9.98), and floor puzzles up to 100 pieces (9.98). All come with designs kids will love – dinosaurs, trucks, animals, pirates and more.

ARTS & CRAFTS . . .

We carry a variety of paints, crayons and chalks for little hands, all non-toxic and washable, along with brushes, paper and easels. For girls, we carry Melissa & Doug's Decorate Your Own series where kids design and paint their own bookmarks, piggy banks, jigsaw puzzles, jewelry and door signs (4.98-9.98). For boys 6 and up, we have Mighty Builders (19.98), which are small wooden models of trucks and fighter planes, or for ages 8 and up, Robotic Gorilla and Robotic T-Rex (Silver Dolphin, 17.95), where kids build their own miniature robots.

CHRISTMAS WITH PAULA DEEN

Paula Deen

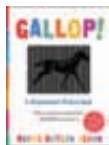

A perfect stocking and belly stuffer for the Paula Deen fan. Paula shares her favorite Christmas recipes and family stories. Simon & Schuster, hd. 23.00.

SOUTHERN COCKTAILS

Denise Gee

For the true-hearted Southerner who firmly believes it's five o'clock somewhere, this is a solid collection to keep handy near the liquor cabinet. The classics are here, along with some playful new renditions and Southern hors d'oeuvres. Chronicle, hd. 14.95.

GALLOP!

Rufus Seder

Adults love this book as much as kids. When you turn the page, the animals move, as if captured on video. A charming book of animals in motion, it must be seen to be believed. Workman, 12.95.

TURNROW GEAR . . .

T-Shirts (16.00) Our pre-shrunk, 100% cotton T-shirts come in several varieties – a slime-fit ladies tee in blue, or a standard fit in brown or white with our logo on the front and “Rhythm & Books in the Mississippi Delta” on the back. From XXXL to kids sizes.

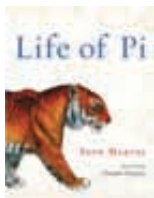

Onesies (16.00) Start 'em young, we say. Give the baby in your life a Turnrow onesie, available in blue or pink, sizes 3-6 mo., 6-12 mos., 12-18 mos. & 18-24 mos.

Caps (16.00) Our ballcaps are tan with the Turnrow logo in brown.

Coffee Mug (8.00) From our cafe, these mugs have been popular for their slightly larger size and sleek style. Printed with our logo and slogan.

In addition to these fine items, we offer gift certificates for any amount.
