

GIFTS OF INSPIRATION...

THE LAST LECTURE

RANDY PAUSCH

One of the most inspiring works of the year, this slim little pick-me-up is perfect for someone who needs a lift. A famous professor, diagnosed with terminal cancer, delivers a mighty and uplifting address. (Hyperion, 21.95)

THE SHACK

WM. PAUL YOUNG

A novel of great tragedy, spirituality, and humor, the kind of book readers buy multiple copies of just to distribute to their friends. The book's infectious message of faith has caused a sensation. (Windblown, 24.99 or 14.99)

Customers love the new Mossy Oak camo bible (Nelson, 24.99), a compact-sized, NKJV version of the bible for outdoorsman. Check out our variety of other bibles in various styles, translations and price ranges.

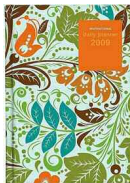

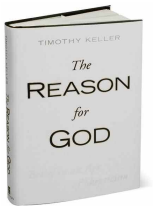

ACEIDA & ME

KATHLEEN NORRIS

The beloved religious author probes her own faith and experience to reveal a common spiritual malady called acedia. A powerful and searching memoir by a modern-day Thomas Merton. Signed by the author. (Riverhead, 25.95)

Timothy Keller has become a favorite of spiritual readers here. His book The Reason for God (Dutton, 24.95) is a thoughtful response to religion's many skeptics and provides strong, rational arguments for believers. Keller's gift as a communicator is evident in his new book, The Prodigal God (19.95), which sheds new light on Jesus' best-known parable, the Prodigal Son.

We offer various Inspirational Daily Planners for 2009 from Thomas Nelson. These handsome books — in green and tan fabric or leather-like black — can be used as a calendar, day planner or spiritual journal, provides scriptures and wise quotes for each day. (19.99)
